

DIXIE AERIE TO OPEN
NEW HOME ON THURSDAY

Handsome Clubhouse Ready for Use of Large Membership.

STATE CONVENTION MEETS HERE

No Lodge in State Has More Complete Equipment, Either for Entertainment or for Lodge Work—Local Aerie Has Grown Rapidly.

Dixie Aerie, No. 338, Fraternal Order of Eagles, which has just completed its new home at the northwest corner of Third and Marshall Streets, will have its formal opening on Thursday Thanksgiving Day.

The new home is finished and occupied, and it makes an unusually fine appearance in its exterior and interior.
It is said that there is no other organization in the State having more complete provision for lodge work and entertainment. It is a model home, and a monument to the splendid management of the officers of the aerie and of the building committee, as well as to the members who extended every aid.

The local aerie was instituted in Richmond on March 22, 1903, the ceremonies taking place in Smith's Hall, on Broad Street. Afterwards, in 1905, the aerie occupied the assembly room in Murphy's Hotel for a few years, going from there to the corner of Fourth and Broad Streets, where permanent headquarters were secured.

NOW HOUSED IN HANDSOME CLUBHOUSE

The rapid growth of the aerie caused the matter of suitable accommodations to become an urgent matter, and finally resulted in the erection and occupancy of the new building, where a membership of approximately 1,200 is now happily and comfortably located.
The splendidly equipped dining room, under direction of Captain Haschen, is one of the best in the State, and in all its participation in drills at State conventions has brought the laurels to Richmond.

Officers of Dixie Aerie for 1914 are: past worthy president, James A. Ward; worthy president, John M. Allen; worthy vice president, Wilbur J.
Griggs; worthy chaplain, Benjamin Lovenstein; worthy conductor, Alfred E. Hirschberg; recording secretary, Irvin A. Chapman; financial secretary, S. L. Hirschberg; treasurer, Thomas A.
Reddin; inside guard, James A. Harris; outside guard, H. L. Fisher. Trustees: William H. Lowery, W. H. Wyatt, Jr., John L. Satterfield.

The next State convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will be held in Richmond next June. The sixteen aeries in the State will send large delegations. The new home will, of course, be convention headquarters. The local aerie will have in hand the entire program of business and entertainment.
Many degree teams will compete.
There will be many amusement attractions and a big parade. Committees will soon be organized to perfect the arrangements for the convention.

SCHWAB OPTIMISTIC

He Believes Tide Has Turned in This Country's Favor.

NEW YORK, November 21.—Charles M. Schwab, president of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, who returned from London yesterday, declined to go into details as to his mission abroad, saying merely that his company had a number of large contracts in force in Europe, and that his presence was necessary. He denied reports that the Bethlehem Steel Corporation had contracted to build twenty submarines for Great Britain.

Mr. Schwab gave what he said was the first optimistic statement on business conditions that had come from him in three years.

"I believe we are near the turning point for a full return of confidence and prosperity in the United States," he said. "We are being favored by the war as is no other nation. For example, Germany normally produces from 12,000,000 to 15,000,000 tons of steel annually, of which about 5,000-6,000 tons is exported. This is now shut off, and the advantage is in our favor.
"What is true of steel is true of other commodities, but it is not the war supply trade alone that is turning the tide. We are recovering from the shock of the war, legislation is such that capital has more confidence and business is being stimulated. At Bethlehem some time back we were forced partially to suspend operations, but we will soon be in full action again, and we will increase our production."

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LAWRENCEVILLE, Va., November 21.—A pretty church wedding was celebrated at Callville at high noon Thursday in Emmanuel Episcopal Church, when Miss Sally Louise Cheeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis Cheeley, was married to Levi Hicknell Gage, of Norfolk, son of Frank M.
Gage, of Brunswick County. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G.
McDowell, rector of Emmanuel Church, Richmond, assisted by Rev. A. P. Grant, Jr., Miss Rosie Thomas, of Richmond, sang before the ceremony, being accompanied by Mrs. George F. Skillman, of Victoria. Miss Ruby Brown played

Mrs. Twombly Fined.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, Va., November 21.— Mrs. H. McKay Twombly, a well-known New York society leader, was held up here on telephone complaint and required to pay a $12.50 fine, because the chauffeur was alleged to have driven her limousine through Middletown, twelve miles south, faster than eight miles an hour. Mrs. Twombly defended her chauffeur, and the local police wanted to drop the case, but the Middletown authorities refused.
Mrs. Twombly and Mrs. Macy, also of New York, were returning from White Sulphur Springs. The former's sister, Mrs. W. Edward Webb, and a party of friends reached here to-night from White Sulphur Springs.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
DANVILLE, Va., November 21.—W.
T. Love, for five years a member of the city police force has suddenly sent in his resignation, which was accepted by the Mayor. Love was to have been called before the police commissioners to answer a charge of disorderly conduct preferred against him by a negro on Saturday night. He was suspended for sixty days last August on the same charge.

Payne—Williams.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., November 21.— Announcements have been received here of the marriage at Atlanta, Ga., November 7, of B. Cheatham Payne, formerly of Lynchburg, and Miss Lydia A. Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

H. N. Williams, of Buckingham County, this State. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Payne went to Opelika, Ala., where he is engaged in business.

How To Fight Tuberculosis

IN a paper read last year before the Bexar County Medical Society, and later published in part in the Louisville "Medical Progress," Dr. J. W. Carhart, of San Antonio, Texas, a physician of wide reputation, who has devoted much time to the study of tuberculosis, said: "Since lime-salts constitute three-fourths of all the mineral substances of the human body, they must be supplied in the foods or supplemented in mineral preparations, or natural starvation ensues, with tuberculosis unchecked." He further claimed, according to "Medical Progress" (May, 1913, page 110), "that the widespread and unchecked spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due largely to the depleted (lime-lacking) conditions of multitudes throughout the civilized world."

Thus, from another authoritative medical source comes justification for the use of lime in the treatment of tuberculosis.

Since this is one of the ingredients of Eckman's Alternative, much of the success that has attended the widespread use of this remedy doubtless is due to the combination of this salt with other valuable ingredients in such a way as to render it easily assimilable. As compounded for many years, it seems to cause no stomach disturbance, and since it contains neither opiates, narcotics nor habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try.

Eckman's Alternative has effected remarkable results in numerous cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and allied chronic affections of the throat and bronchial passages. In many instances such conditions, apparently, have yielded completely to it.

In case your druggist is out of it, ask him to order, or send direct
